NOVEMBER DATES

November 11th: Veterans Day

This is a federal holiday in the United States observed annually on November 11, for honoring military veterans of the United States Armed Forces. This day is a celebration for America's veterans for their patriotism, love of country, and willingness to serve and sacrifice for the common good.

November 20th: Transgender Day of Remembrance

This day is dedicated to honoring the memory of transgender individuals whose lives were lost in acts of anti-transgender violence.

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

NOVEMBER
NATIONAL NATIVE
AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

Native American Heritage month is celebrated in November to honor the culture, traditions, and achievements of Native Americans, Alaska Natives, Native Hawaiians, and affiliated Island communities. It also recognizes the contributions of Indigenous people to the United States and the world.

Our committee and ISFAA acknowledge that the land on which our institutions stand, the offices where we work, and the homes of those we educate stand on the historic homelands of many Native peoples, including but not limited to the Miami, Wea, Potawatomi, Delaware, Chippewa, Wyandot, Winnebago, Seneca, Kickapoo, Piankashaw, and Kaskaskia tribes.

We honor this land's Indigenous inhabitants, recall their losses, and call attention to the contemporary issues still faced by tribal people today.
